Applicant to the Summer 2006 Washington State Bar Exam
Test method: «Test_Method»

The Board of Governors of the Washington State Bar Association has approved your application to take the Washington State Bar Examination subject to the receipt of your Law School Certificate. This certificate has been forwarded to your law school by the Bar Association. If there is a problem we will contact you. However, this does not mean that you will be automatically recommended to the Supreme Court for admission to the Bar if you pass the Bar Examination. The Board reserves the right for further evaluation based on all factors before full recommendation to the Court.

Please note that the last address you give the Bar Association will be used on all correspondence. It is your responsibility to notify the Bar of any address change, and our responsibility ceases when correspondence is directed to your last address as it appears on our records. Address changes must be submitted in writing to this office with your signature along with the information that you are a bar examination applicant.

Regarding National Conference Reports: All attorney applicants will be seated without this report if necessary; however, results will not be available until the report is received. The request for the report has been made to the National Conference of Bar Examiners and will be forwarded to this office by NCBE. Action by you, at this time, is unnecessary.

Results of the Exam

The results of the summer 2006 exam will be placed in the mail on October 6, 2006. They will be posted on the web site at http://www.wsba.org. by October 9, 2006. You will have one year from this date of notification to become admitted to the Washington State Bar Association.
