WASHINGTON YOUNG LAWYER COMMITTEE
Public Service Incentive Award
Application FY 2013-2014

The WYLC Public Service Incentive Award was created to encourage new and young lawyers to engage in public service activities. The award is for licensed attorneys admitted to practice in Washington who are in good standing and qualify as a Young Lawyer[1]. Awards will be given approximately each quarter by the WYLC Public Service Incentive Award subcommittee for a WSBA-CLE that equates up to six credits. Applications are accepted and under consideration throughout the year. Applicants need only submit one application per year. Any changes to submitted applications can be made by contacting newlawyers@wsba.org.

Date:

Applicant Name:
Firm/Employer:
Mailing Address:
City:	State:	Zip Code:
Phone:	Fax:	E-Mail:
WSBA No.	Year Admitted to Practice In Washington:
Area of Practice:

Are you currently involved in providing pro bono and public service activities (as described in RPC 6.1)? This can include the following: (1) WSBA, ABA, or local bar association activities; (2) Volunteering with a pro bono and/or public service program; or (3) Writing a blog post for NWSidebar and/or writing an article for NWLawyer. If so, please describe:

_____

_____

_____

Reference: Please provide contact information for the individual who can best speak to your involvement in the above mentioned activities.

Name: _____ Title: _____

E-mail: _____ Phone: _____

If no, please describe your proposed involvement in pro bono and public service activities (as described in RPC 6.1). This can include the items specified above.

_____

_____

Please list any upcoming WSBA-CLE programs that you would like to attend. These programs should be held a full-day or half-day program (maximum of 6.0 total credits).

_____

_____

Submit Application to newlawyers@wsba.org

[1] A Young Lawyer is any member of the WSBA that is under the age of 36 or in his or her first five years of practice, whichever is longer.