

CONTACT INFORMATION RESTRICTIONS

Pursuant to WSBA Bylaws, mailing address, telephone and fax information is public information and therefore published in the WSBA online and Resources directories and provided to the Administrative Office of the Courts. All members will receive the following mail and e-mail: licensing and licensing-related materials, MCLE notifications and forms, annual section membership dues notice and section newsletters for sections to which members belong, and Board of Governors election materials. For items other than these materials, members may request restrictions on use.

Primary e-mail address will be published in the WSBA directories unless restricted (see at bottom of page).

E-Mail Privacy and Member Contact Information: It is the general policy of the WSBA to be restrictive in the distribution or sale of contact information of its members. E-mail addresses may be sold only to providers of CLE seminars. For more information, read the Member Data and Contact Information Policy at <http://www.wsba.org/lawyers/member-data.htm>.

Broadcast E-mail Policy: Recognizing that unwanted e-mails can be bothersome, the WSBA is careful about the frequency and content of broadcast e-mails. For more information, read the Broadcast E-mail Policy at <http://www.wsba.org/info/broadcast-email.htm>.
