Application Information:

- I. This is the application to sit for the Washington State Bar Examination and to be admitted to the practice of law in the State of Washington. Read the entire application carefully. Answer each question completely.
- II. The responsibility of full disclosure rests entirely upon the applicant. Failure to fully disclose as requested in this application may be considered a reflection on the applicant's moral character and may itself result in denial of admission. It is the applicant's duty to advise the Admissions Department of any changes in or additions to the information provided on this application. There cannot be too much disclosure.
- III. Two (2) complete applications must be filed, one (1) of which may be a photocopy. Incomplete applications will not be processed. Transcripts are not required, as the Washington State Bar Association (WSBA) Admissions Department will obtain Law School Certificates of graduation. Outdated information will not be accepted. All information submitted in applying for admission to the WSBA must be dated within 5 months of the application date.
- IV. The WSBA Admissions Department will send a letter acknowledging registration of each application within approximately 15 days of its receipt.
- V. Keep a copy of all application materials filed for your records.

General Applicants:

- I. Applicants who have never been admitted to the practice of law in any state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or in any jurisdiction in which the Common Law of England is the basis of its jurisprudence, are considered Student or General Applicants.
- II. Applicants who have been admitted to a qualifying bar within six (6) months previous to the Washington Bar exam for which they are applying, and who have never practiced law, may be considered as a General Applicant. Filing under these conditions requires the submission of a) a written affidavit confirming the applicant has never practiced law, and b) two (2) certificates of good standing (one for each application form) at least one of which must be an original.

Attorney Applicants:

- I. Applicants who have been admitted to the practice of law in any state or territory of the United States or in the District of Columbia, or in any jurisdiction in which the Common Law of England is the basis of its jurisprudence, are considered Attorney Applicants. (See General Applicants (II) for the only exception to this policy.)
- II. All Attorney Applicants are to submit two certificates of good standing (one with each application) from each jurisdiction in which they are admitted (Federal Courts excepted), at least one of which must be an original. To obtain your certificates, contact the admitting authority (i.e. State Bar or highest state court) in each jurisdiction where you are admitted.
- III. The Character and Fitness Committee will not consider applications from lawyers who are currently under disciplinary suspension from another jurisdiction in which they are admitted to practice.

Repeating Applicants:

- I. Any applicant who has ever sat for the Washington State Bar exam and must retake it is considered a Repeat Applicant. Applicants who have previously transferred their fees but have never actually taken the exam are not considered Repeating Applicants.
- II. REPEATING ONE SECTION ONLY: If you have passed only the Substantive or the Professional Responsibility portion of the examination within 25 months previous to the exam for which you are now applying, you need repeat only the portion of the examination you previously failed.

Fees and Filing Deadline Schedule: The required examination fee must accompany your application.

- I. GENERAL APPLICANTS (not admitted to practice in any jurisdiction) must file at least 90 days prior to the first day of the Bar examination for which they are applying $460
- II. ATTORNEY APPLICANTS (previously admitted to practice in any US jurisdiction) must file at least 120 days prior to the first day of the Bar examination for which they are applying$735
($485 plus NCBE Investigation fee of $250 for US attorneys)
- III. ATTORNEY APPLICANTS (previously admitted to practice in any foreign jurisdiction) $985
($485 plus NCBE investigation fee of $500 for foreign attorneys)
- IV. REPEATING APPLICANTS must file at least 60 days prior to the first day of the Bar examination for which they are applying.
 - 1) Repeating Substantive Only$360
 - 2) Repeating Professional Responsibility Only$235
 - 3) Repeating both portions - applicants must pay the full fee, as shown above. See (I), (II) or (III).
- V. LATE FILING – Applicants who register any time after the appropriate filing deadlines must pay an additional $285 late filing fee penalty. Late applications must be received at least 50 days prior to the examination. No application will be accepted after this final deadline.

Admission to Practice Law:

- I. The examination consists of two parts: Substantive and Professional Responsibility. Applicants must take and pass both parts of the examination to qualify for admission to the practice of law in Washington.
- II. To be approved to sit for the examination, all applicants must establish that they are of good moral character and are fit to practice law. Approval of this application does not automatically secure admission to the practice of law, even if the applicant is successful on the examination. The Board of Governors and the Washington Supreme Court have the right to raise questions concerning admission at any time.
- III. For further information regarding admission to the practice of law, please refer to the Admissions to Practice Rules (APR) in the State of Washington.

Exam Withdrawal and/or Transfer:

- I. REFUNDS: The WSBA Admissions Department charges all applicants a $100 non-refundable processing fee. If the WSBA Admissions Department receives an applicant’s written request to withdraw at least 10 days prior to the first day of the examination, the applicant may receive a refund of the fee paid less: a) the $100 processing fee, and b) any investigative costs incurred by the WSBA (including the fee paid to the National Conference of Bar Examiners for attorney applicants).
- II. TRANSFERS TO THE NEXT EXAM: An applicant may request to withdraw from one examination and transfer to the next examination only by submitting a written request at least 10 days prior to the first day of the examination. The examination fee will be applied to the next examination only, on the following conditions:
 - A. The written transfer request must be postmarked or received by the WSBA Admissions Department at least 10 days prior to the exam. If there are extraordinary circumstances that prevent an applicant from taking the examination (e.g., a serious medical emergency, death in the immediate family, significant health problems, house fire), a written request must be postmarked or delivered to the WSBA within 10 days after the exam. Any applicant making a transfer request less than 10 days prior to the date of the original examination who then withdraws from the subsequent examination, will receive no refund of any kind.
 - B. The applicant must file an application in the prescribed form by the appropriate deadline and pay an additional $250 processing fee at the time of reapplying.
 - C. Applications and/or fees may be transferred only once and only to the next examination. Applicants not applying to the next examination will forfeit all fees.
