

Council on Public Legal Education

AGENDA

October 8, 2009, 9:00-noon

University of Washington School of Law

- | | | |
|-------------|---|---|
| 9:00-9:15 | Welcome; introductions; announcements | Hon. Marlin Appelwick |
| 9:15-9:30 | CPLE Business
Approve minutes of Spring 2009 CPLE meeting
Election of co-chairs and executive committee | Judith Billings
Justice Mary Fairhurst |
| 9:30-9:50 | Recommendations on Outreach Projects
The WSBA is about to embark upon a major redesign of its website. Does the CPLE have recommendations regarding content and features for the public that should be included?
The state courts have created a Children's Activity Book that educates youth about the court system. Does the CPLE have recommendations for how to disseminate it outside the court system? | Pam Inglesby |
| 9:50-10:00 | Core 24 Proposal
The state Board of Education's Core 24 proposal amends the high school graduation requirements to include more social studies and civics education. Does the CPLE want to take a position on this? | |
| 10:00-10:20 | Public Legal Education Show & Tell
CPLE members and guests are invited to report on PLE activity they are involved in or aware of. | |
| 10:20-10:30 | Break | |
| 10:30-noon | CPLE goals for FY 2010
Review CPLE goals for FY 2010 (see chart). How can CPLE members participate in achieving these goals? What specifically might the CPLE accomplish in the coming year? Who would like to serve on which subcommittee?
Clarify the relationship the new local PLE Councils will have to the CPLE/WSBA. Will the local PLE Councils be "chapters" of the CPLE/WSBA, or independent entities?
The subcommittees will meet to schedule meetings and select chairs for the coming year. | |