Legal Lunchbox™ Series

On the final Tuesday of each month, more than 1,500 practicing legal professionals log in to the WSBA’s free Legal Lunchbox webcasts at noon from their desks or from mobile devices wherever they are.

This extremely popular continuing legal education series offers Washington’s 40,000 practicing legal professionals a convenient and no-cost way to earn 18 CLE credits a year toward the 45 credits they must report every three years. It is designed to help practitioners develop the skills, tools, and techniques necessary in 21st century law practice, from offering alternative fee arrangements to using e-discovery effectively, to navigating the ethical risks inherent in social media.

Every Legal Lunchbox webcast is recorded and made accessible after the live broadcast, further expanding the audience for the series. WSBA members appreciate this free series—an appreciation that will no doubt extend to sponsors that make it possible for the WSBA to continue offering it.

SPONSORSHIP

Per Month $1,000*

As a monthly sponsor of the WSBA Legal Lunchbox Webcast Series, your company will receive sole recognition in marketing materials prior to the live broadcast, in addition to prominent name and logo recognition at the beginning and end of each webcast for the month in which you sponsor.
