Style Guidelines for Handouts

Reminder: Reprint permission is required for WSBA to publish anything that is not your original work, such as law journal articles, websites, images from the web, etc. If you are incorporating anything in your written materials that is not your original work, please contact your WSBA Education Programs Lead immediately to assist you in requesting reprint permission.

Font/Format:

12pt font (preferably Arial), 1" margins, single- or double-spaced

If you are using any document in which the format cannot be changed (ex. scanned physical document), please ensure the scan is legible. WSBA reserves the right to edit materials for accessibility/readability.

If you choose to provide a table of contents, please note that the standard chapter page is always Page 1. All pages should follow numerically, with no roman numerals.

File Type:

Word (.doc/.docx) or PDF.
