Family Law Practice Area Committee Update

No Updates. Shay Adhikari will be assisting Sarah Bové in establishing meeting dates to discuss the real property form with the committee. Jennifer Ortega stated she can have the Real Property Form draft completed by the week of November 14-20 and will begin circulating the draft among the committee established in today's meeting. Members include: Chair, Sarah Bové; Jen Bull; Nancy Ivarinen; and Christy Carpenter.

Family Law Exam Committee

The Family Law Exam Committee is ready for the next exam.

APR 28 Discussion - Guardianships

The Board discussed amendments needed under APR 28, which will include the removal of non-parental custody from areas in which LLLTs may practice because the Supreme Court repealed the non-parental custody statute. The Court enacted new statutes covering minor guardianships and guardianships for adult disabled children. The board will consider whether to seek to authorize LLLTs to practice in these two guardianship areas. Jen Bull informed the Board that there stated that there are significant changes occurring to the guardianship statutes for minors and adult disabled children which will become effective on January 1, 2022. The Board will defer a decision on guardianships until after the new statutes become effective.

The Board discussed the use of a Revocable Power of Attorney forms for Non-Parental Custody. There is an issue of whether this form is acceptable to medical providers/schools.

This topic will also be discussed by the Family Law Practice Area Committee Meeting in December 2021 along with the guardianship topics. Jen Bull will supply information regarding the new process and requirements for minor child guardianships. Nicole Schilling will report on the procedure for adult disable child guardianship.

TAXICAB

Jon Burke reported that Terra Nevitt is seeking input from Supreme Court Boards regarding the memorandum by the task force analyzing the applicability of WSBA rules and bylaws to those Boards. The memorandum contains a discussion of many issues related to the application of General Rule 12.3

The Board decided to create a committee to discuss the issues in the Taxicab memorandum and report to the Board at the next meeting. The members of the Taxicab Committee include: Steve Crossland (Chair of committee); Jen Bull; Nancy Ivarinen; Sarah Bové; Nicole Schilling; and John Darling. WSBA staff schedule times during the next two weeks for the committee to meet to discuss this matter. The Board does not anticipate providing input to Taxicab until after the LLLT Board's December 6, 2021 meeting. Steve Crossland was assigned to be the LLLT Board's representative to Taxicab.

Board Committee Development

The Board assigned the following members to the PR Committee: Jennifer Ortega (Chair) Sarah Bové, Christy Carpenter, Thomi Manker, and Nancy Ivarinen. WSBA Staff will coordinate with the PR Committee to meet with Hue (from Ergometrics) in November or early December 2021 to prepare questions for the ethics portion of the January 2022 LLLT examination.

The Board will defer until the December 6, 2021 meeting to establish other LLLT committees.
