

Draft amendment for cannabis cases which would fit best after the current subsection (6) in RCW 7.60.130:

(7) If the receiver rejects an unexpired lease of real property, on which a cannabis producer, processor, or retail license has been issued by the Washington State Liquor and Cannabis Board under RCW 69.50.325, the rejection of that unexpired lease shall be considered an eviction, outside of the licensee's control and the licensee shall be eligible for a temporary discontinued business license status from the Washington State Liquor and Cannabis Board.
