

I am applying to remain a member of the WSBA Civil Rights Law Section to continue my involvement in the section, starting last year. As a staff attorney with the ACLU of Washington, I am deeply committed to civil rights work in Washington State. I have served on the executive committee of the CRLS for the past year.

-Adrien Leavitt