The mission of the Civil Rights Law Section (CRLS) is to educate and advocate for civil liberties and equal rights in the context of civil rights law and the legal issues of Washington State residents, with particular focus on those who have traditionally been denied such rights and equal treatment under the law including, but not limited to, racial, ethnic, or religious minorities; elderly; gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgendered; immigrants; mentally or physically disabled; impoverished; and homeless. The section also focuses on issues involving civil liberties including freedom of speech, freedom from state-promulgated religion, and privacy rights.

Strategy to Fulfill Purpose:
To fulfill its purpose, the CRLS: (1) sponsors CLEs on civil rights law; (2) provides a forum for activities with civil rights organizations throughout the state; (3) provides a network for communications with the civil rights organizations throughout the State; (4) submits to the Board of Governors or other appropriate Bar entity, recommendations concerning proposed legislation or court rules that impact legal practice in the area of civil rights; and (5) recognizes and honors individuals and organization advancing civil rights in the State of Washington.

How does the entity’s purpose help further the mission of the WSBA “to serve the public and the members of the Bar, to ensure integrity of the legal profession, and to champion justice”?

Our Section’s mission is to educate and advocate for civil liberties and equal rights in the context of civil rights law and legal issues of Washington State residents. In pursuit of this mission, we believe that anti-racism, racial equity, and community-centered lawyering are central to the fair administration of justice and to advancing and protecting the civil rights of all people. The Section’s activities, as listed above, are all aimed at serving the public and members of the bar to champion justice and ensure that the legal profession acts with integrity on civil rights issues including implicit and explicit bias.

2020-2021 Entity Accomplishments:

For 2020-2021, the CRLS: reviewed legislative bills that either directly or indirectly impacted civil rights; submitted comments for four (4) of legislative bills: HB 1090 (a bill prohibiting persons, businesses, and state and local governments from operating private detention facilities or from utilizing contracts with private detention facilities, with some exceptions), HB 1202 (a bill providing a cause of action for persons injured in person or property in Washington by law enforcement acting under the color of authority), HB 1078 (bill aimed at restoring voter eligibility for all persons convicted of a felony offense who are not in total confinement under the jurisdiction of the department of corrections) and HR 2576 (a bill to prohibit the contracting of private detention centers), co-sponsored “The War on Drugs: A Domestic and International Driving Force of Mass Incarceration” CLE in conjunction with WSBA's World Peace Through Law Sections , “What Would Marcus Garvey Do: Community Policing in the Black Lives Matter Era” CLE in conjunction with the Reverend Harriett G. Walden, Founder for Mothers for Police Accountability and was community partner with the Holocaust Center for Humanity in presenting a CLE titled “The Crime of Complicity: Law and the Bystander from the Holocaust to Today.” The CRLS also produced a number of mini-CLEs including “Why is it so difficult to vote in the Unites States? 21st Century Disenfranchisement” lead by a former CRLS Chair awarded 5 recognitions/awards. From a community engagement perspective, the CRLS Legislative Research Committee hosted a virtual get together with the greater community and the CRLS hosted a facilitated discussion with Advocates for Immigrants in Detention Northwest (AIDNW), and participated in career advice session with Gonzaga law students.

Looking Ahead: 2021-2022 Top Goals & Priorities:

1. Continue holding the WSBA accountable for systemic racism and push for civil rights, equity, diversity and inclusion to the BOG and within WSBA.
2. Offer and promote more CLEs addressing policies and practices that enforce civil rights protections, including systemic changes that recognize traditionally marginalized communities.

3. Grow our membership and increase networking opportunities so that we can connect with other advocates in the community dedicated to the same mission.

4. Follow and support legislation that leads to the end of mass incarceration.

5. Educate our membership on local and national civil rights matters via newsletters, listserv, and volunteer opportunities.

Please report how this entity is addressing diversity, equity, and inclusion:

How have you elicited input from a variety of perspectives in your decision-making? What have you done to promote a culture of inclusion within the board or committee? What has your committee/board done to promote equitable conditions for members from historically underrepresented backgrounds to enter, stay, thrive, and eventually lead the profession? Other?

Our Section is dedicated to enhancing diversity amongst ourselves and the WSBA as a whole. In 2020, our Section arranged for JustLead trainers to instruct Executive Committee members at the annual retreat on mindfulness techniques necessary to build racial equity awareness and promote selfcare. This year, we will seek to engage in a similar training, even if more informally. Moreover, for the 2021 session, the CRLS developed a Values Statement that outlines our collective commitments (that will also be followed this year) as follows: We commit to the following actions as we pursue our Section’s mission during the 2021 session:

- To actively challenge and confront our open and implicit biases.
- To actively challenge others’ open and implicit biases.
- To amplify the voices of those challenging open and implicit biases.
- To reach out to and build sustainable relationships with marginalized communities.
- To continue our support and partnership with Minority Bar Associations.
- To seek opportunities to educate the BOG on the issues of anti-racism.
- To bring representation into our Section and the BOG from historically marginalized communities.
- To promote ethical accountability by equipping the profession to identify and appropriately report biased, discriminatory, and prejudicial conduct in violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct and the Code of Judicial Conduct.
- To hold CLEs on racial equity and justice.
- To advocate for legislatively expanding civil liberties by educating and lobbying our legislators.
- To actively divest from white supremacist culture through our own individual and collective actions. White supremacy includes, but is not limited to, the following characteristics: perfectionism, individualism, sense of urgency, defensiveness, worship of the written word, power hoarding, either/or thinking, paternalism, and fear of open conflict.

Our Section is also committed to the Washington Race Equity & Justice Initiative, which is an effort to “coordinate and grow a sustainable statewide community of legal and justice system partners in Washington State who can more effectively and collaboratively work toward eradicating racially biased policies, practices, and systems.” Three of our members including our current Chair are actively participating in this initiative with the goal of ensuring that Sections and members can advocate for issues that improve access to justice in an equitable and inclusive way. The CRLS is currently working together with other sections and advocates in line with this commitment.

Please describe the relationship with WSBA staff and the Board of Governors.
For example:
- Quality of WSBA staff support/services
- Involvement with Board of Governors, including assigned BOG liaison
- Ideas you have on ways WSBA can continue to strengthen/support your entity

We continue to be highly appreciative of the support we have received from the WSBA, especially from our liaison Carolyn McGregor. We are also very grateful to have had Alec Stephens as our BOG liaison. Alec is a pioneer for civil rights that we all look up to. He has a wealth of knowledge about the WSBA and civil rights that enhanced the services we were able to provide to our members. He is also selfless – using his experience only to better the community he serves. As part of the Washington Race Equity & Justice Initiative, three of our members, including our current chair are on the GR12 Subcommittee and are actively working with the WSBA General Counsel and other members to update the interpretation and approach to GR12 to better align with the stated goals of the Bar.
