

Environmental and Land Use Law Section

OCTOBER 1, 2021 – SEPTEMBER 30, 2022

The ENVIRONMENTAL AND LAND USE LAW SECTION helps members keep up with this rapidly developing area of law. The Section represents a diverse membership with individuals who are often on different sides of an issue, but who are all committed to civil and professional cooperation for the protection and enhancement of shared communities. Accordingly, the Section endeavors to continually and regularly provide opportunities and forums for the interchange of ideas surrounding environmental and land use law.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

- Hosted a three-day Midyear Conference and Membership Meeting at Suncadia as a hybrid (in-person and virtual) event.
- Continued to provide members with targeted environmental and land use bill information via the list-serve during the past legislative session, with the assistance of law students.
- Held annual networking receptions in both Seattle and Spokane for soon-to-be and young lawyers.
- Co-hosted an event with the King County Bar Association's Environmental and Land Use Law Section.
- Provided $11,000 in grants that award funds to students who participate in activities that further their interest and commitment to the practice of environmental or land use law, increasing our grants this year in comparison to previous years.
