

Cecilia Welch

I would be honored to serve on FLEC and bring to the table my 26 years of experience working for the Navy as a civilian attorney. Hopefully I could provide some insight and understanding to the family law issues that are common to the military environment and shed some light to those attorneys outside the military - at least able to decipher the "secret" and constantly changing acronyms and unique ways the military handles family related issues.