

ANASTASIA CLARK

EXPERIENCE

Attorney/Owner, Everblue Law PLLC May 2022-Present
Bremerton, WA

Practicing children's representation in dependency and guardianship matters throughout Western Washington. Engaging in all stages of litigation for the stated or legal interests of children. Meeting with clients, families, and collateral witnesses. Maintaining the firm's calendar, administrative tasks, and drafting all documents.

Associate Attorney, Warrior Woman Law, PLLC June 2020-June 2022
Port Orchard, WA

Practiced in two-attorney personal injury and criminal defense firm in all stages of litigation.

Education Law Teaching Assistant, Temple University May 2019-Dec 2019
Philadelphia, PA

Assisted in an undergraduate education law course titled "Education in the Global City." Prepared presentations on magnet schools and discriminatory testing.

Education Law Intern, Education Law Center Aug 2018-Nov 2018
Philadelphia, PA

Conducted legal research on special education and youth homelessness. Conducted client intake and attended youth homelessness coalition meetings.

EDUCATION

Temple University Beasley School of Law, Philadelphia, PA May 2020
Juris Doctor, Cum Laude

Western Washington University, Bellingham, WA June 2014
Bachelor of Arts in 'Pedagogical Diversity: Law, Diversity and Justice' with Minor in 'Education and Social Justice'

ENDEAVORS

Young Lawyer Liaison, Juvenile Law Section of WSBA 2023-Present
Washington State

Managing section website; creating a 'warm hand raise' list of attorneys willing to help colleagues on questions where juvenile law overlaps with other fields. Surveying the section for areas of interest, contacting attorneys in related sections, and building relationships to foster collaboration.

Member, Daughters of the American Revolution Admiralty Inlet Chapter May 2024-Present
Port Townsend, WA

Volunteering at and attending events to promote education, historical preservation, and patriotism. Collecting letters from families of WWII veterans; supporting American Legion's Veteran's Day event 2024; and attending organization conferences.