PROFILE

Family law attorney with over twenty-three years' experience. Focus on family law cases, specifically those with complex financial issues such as closely held businesses, executive deferred compensation plans, stock grants and options, and other valuation issues.

Handle complicated and high conflict parenting issues, including dealing with parents with substance abuse histories, mental health challenges, and domestic violence issues.

Combine strong client advocacy with a deep understanding of the legal issues in order to provide efficient, effective, family-focused resolutions.
