Please provide a brief description of the following:

- 1) How you meet the selection criteria listed below;
- 2) Why you wish to attend the Midyear Conference; and
- 3) A brief statement indicating your desire to become more involved with the Real Property Probate and Trust Section.

Selection Criteria

Individuals eligible for the scholarship must meet the following criteria:

1. Eligibility. The individual must be:
 - A. An attorney who has been a member of the Washington State Bar for 7 years or less;
 - B. A student pursuing a JD or tax LLM who demonstrates a strong interest in pursuing a career in the practice of real property, estate planning, probate and trust law; or
 - C. An attorney employed by a governmental unit, non-profit organization or Indian Tribe.
2. Member of RPPT Section. An attorney or student who is a member of the RPPT Section, or joins the RPPT Section at the time of application.
3. Financial Need. An attorney or student whose employer does not reimburse for the cost of attending CLEs. If the employer has a policy of paying a percentage of the registration fee, the attorney may be eligible for a partial scholarship for the balance of the Midyear tuition and/or travel expenses.

Current members of the Real Property Probate and Trust Section Executive Committee are not eligible for the scholarship.

Scholarships will include: tuition for the Midyear CLE and reimbursement for travel expenses and meals subject to WSBA reimbursement guidelines. For details regarding WSBA reimbursement guidelines please see the second page of the WSBA Expense Report Form (January 2024) accessible here: <https://www.wsba.org/connect-serve/volunteer-opportunities/Toolbox>.

To be eligible for consideration, applications must be received by email to Anna Cashman at acashman@khbblaw.com in a PDF or Word format. Please include this applicant information page, your responses to the questions and a copy of your current resume.

Deadline: Applications are due no later than April 12, 2024.

Scholarship winners will be notified by late May 2024. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Anna Cashman via email at acashman@khbblaw.com
