WSBA Solo & Small Practice Section List Serve Guidelines

The WSBA Solo & Small Practice Section list serve is a vibrant communication tool and resource. You must be a Solo & Small Practice Section member/subscriber in order to be included on the section's list serve and must be a member of the list serve in order to send a message. Section members are added to the list serve by staff shortly after the member joins the section. (A section subscriber may also be added to the list serve; subscribers are non-attorneys and could include, for example, individuals such as law firm consultants or law students). List serve subscribers may request to receive messages in "daily digest" or "index" format. List serve subscribers may also request to use a different email address for list serve subscriptions or unsubscribe from the list serve at any time. This list serve is not moderated. Below you will find general information pertaining to use of this list serve -- plus rules, policies, and practice tips.

Please keep in mind that posts on the list serve are subject to public disclosure.

General Information

- This is a “closed” list serve, meaning it is only open to current section members and closed to anyone not currently subscribed. Only current subscribers of the list serve can send an email to the list serve.
- The name of the list serve will be automatically added before the subject line of your message. The list name will appear in brackets. This allows list serve subscribers to use the list serve name as a filter when receiving email messages and setting up rules to manage email folders; this section’s list serve address is: solo-and-small-practice-section@list.wsba.org.
- This list serve allows attachments; however, the total message size including attachments is limited to 10 megabytes.
- Be sure to add the list serve email address to your “safe sender” list.
- To receive the Daily Digest format, send an email to: digest-solo-and-small-practice-section@list.wsba.org. List serve members may opt to receive a Daily Digest instead of individual messages. The Daily Digest is one email sent out at midnight that contains all of the messages from that day.
- If you wish to unsubscribe from the list serve or have questions of an administrative nature, please contact the WSBA List Administrator at sections@wsba.org.

How to Send Messages

- To send a message to everyone currently subscribed to this list, address your message to solo-and-small-practice-section@list.wsba.org. This is the "list address." The list serve will automatically distribute the email to all subscribers.
A subject line is required on all email messages sent to the list serve. Specific and succinct subject lines are recommended. Avoid subject lines with all capital letters and excessive punctuation.

Please include a signature block at the bottom of the message, or some other contact information (i.e. name and email address or phone number).

Responding to Messages

- When you use “Reply” to respond to an email sent to the list serve, your message will go only to the author of the email. When you use “Reply All,” your message will go to the author and to all members of the list serve.
- If you use an out-of-office message with your email platform, please take steps when enabling the feature to ensure that it does not trigger a response to messages from this list serve.
