KING COUNTY DEPENDENCY CASA

The King County Dependency CASA Program is looking for volunteers who would like to make a positive impact on a child's life. Currently in King County, we have more than 600 children who need someone to speak for them in court.

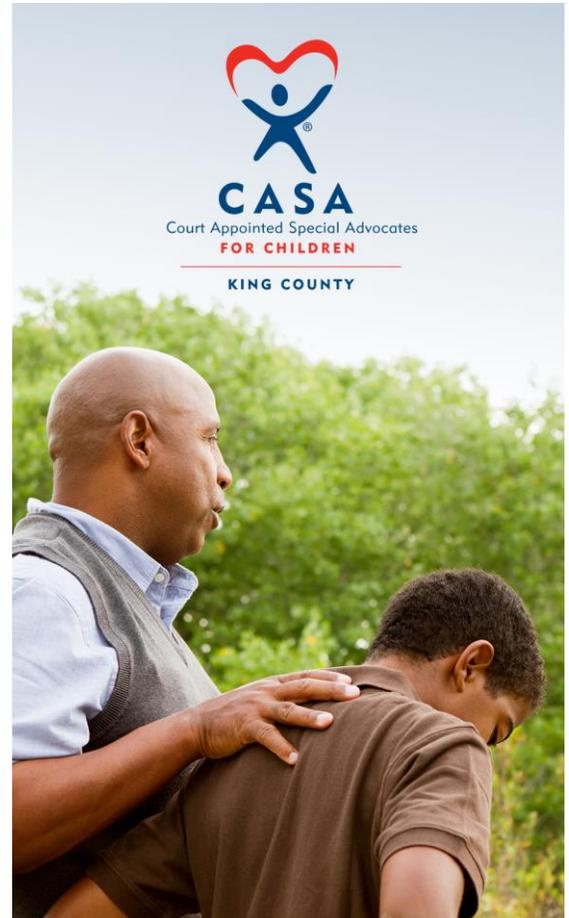

You don't have to be a lawyer or a social worker-just an unbiased adult with good judgement. CASA volunteers are the independent voice that judges and others depend on to represent the best interest of children involved in the child welfare system.
