

4

SUBSTANTIVE LAW

Labor Employment Law

Themes:

Guiding the practice of Labor/Employment Law.

Conversation Starters:

- Do you have any experience in this area of law? What are your interests?
- Do you see yourself representing employers or workers?
- What are some connections with administrative law, civil rights, contracts, mediation/arbitration?

Activities:

- Interview a couple of labor/employment law practitioners or arbitrators
- Consider volunteering at unemployment law project
- Attend a Labor Employment Law section meeting or activity

Resources:

- Discuss what additional resources the mentor/mentee have found useful in their own practice.
- Washington Employment Lawyers Association (plaintiff side)
- Regarding civil rights/discrimination issues, clients can file complaints – with federal, state, and local agencies: Federal (EEOC), State (WHRC), Local
- Unemployment Law Project
- Injured workers - State Labor and Industries
- United States Department of Labor