Estate Planning, Probates, and Trusts

Themes:

• Guiding the practice of estate planning, probates, and trusts.

Conversation Starters:

• What drew you to a practice in estate planning?
• What do you believe an estate planning practice looks like?
• Who do you represent, and where are the possible conflicts of interest?
• Are there issues of competency? What do you do if you are worried about your client’s capacity?
• How do you determine what type of estate planning documents your client needs? (What should be in the will? Does your client need a Trust? What kind of health care related documents does your client need?)
• What are some favorite techniques/tips when planning for taxable estates?
• How and when do you involve other professionals (accountants, tax preparers, appraisers)?
• What do you tell people when they ask why they need a will, or why they need a lawyer (instead of a LegalZoom form)?
• When is a living trust a good idea?

Conversation starters for probate:

• What are the steps for probating a will?
• What are the pitfalls of a probate proceeding?
• What does a personal representative need to do in a probate?
• What role does the lawyer play in administration of a probate after the personal representative has been appointed?
• What are the most common things that personal representatives need help with?
• The court ordered a bond, now what do I do?
• How do I find heirs?
• What is TEDRA and when does it apply?
Activities:

- Conduct a mock intake interview with mentor acting as client and mentee playing the role of the attorney. Mentee can draft a will and other estate planning documents for the “client.”

- Introduce mentee to various non-lawyer professionals such as accountants, financial advisors, counselors, guardians, or assisted living or nursing home specialists.

- Review Title 11 RCW.

- Discuss the specific timing considerations in probate proceedings, and the various deadlines.

- Attend a hearing on the ex parte calendar or probate calendar (King and Pierce Counties).

- Review local rules regarding probates and trusts (as applicable).

- Allow mentee to observe presentation of a petition to probate will, and explain all documents that accompany the petition to appoint personal representative.

- Show mentee how to obtain letters testamentary.

- Discuss issues specifically relating to aging clients (i.e., Social Security, retirement benefits, medical issues).

- Visit the courthouse and learn about the commissioner’s calendars.

- Attend a Real Property, Probate and Trust Section CLE.

- Sign-up for the Real Property, Probate and Trust Section listservs.
Resources:

- Discuss what additional resources the mentor/mentee have found useful in their own practice.
