Table of Dates for File Retention

RPC 1.15B requires that trust account records and related documents be retained for seven (7) years. The following table suggests periods for retaining the client files that pertain to certain practice areas. The table is a suggested standard. Lawyers are free to choose a longer or shorter term of retention of client files. Maintain a permanent record that describes the file and the disposition of the file. Include in the permanent record any releases and receipts for files that are no longer under your control.

Special considerations, such as long-term client relationships, may require longer retention of client files. For example, those files may contain information that is useful for other matters for that client such as in immigration matters and land use matters, among others.
